Conflict of Interest, Code of Conduct, and Whistleblower Policies
Volunteer Disclosure Form

Conflict of Interest:

A conflict of interest arises when a director, employee or volunteer involved in making a decision is in the position to benefit, directly or indirectly, from his or her dealings with the organization or person conducting business with the organization. A complete definition, as well as procedures to appropriately manage any conflict, is found in the foundation's Conflict of Interest Policy.

I have read the foundation's Conflict of Interest Policy. I understand the policy and agree to comply with it. Furthermore, I understand it is my obligation to disclose any conflict of interest or appearance of a conflict to the committee chair and/or staff liaison at each committee grant-making meeting and request that such conflict be documented in the committee minutes. I will abstain from vote on any matter involving a conflict.

Code of Conduct Policy:

I have read the foundation's Code of Conduct Policy. I understand the policy and agree to comply with it.

Whistleblower Policy:

I have read the foundation's Whistleblower Policy. I understand the policy and agree to comply with it.
